

Nothing is more irritating than finally sitting down with you family for dinner and having a telemarketer call to try and sell us something. We never buy anything over the phone and find this very bothersome. Please do not change the rules for the Wisconsin Do Not Call list!!!